

About the artist:

Singer-pianist, arranger and veteran entertainer Mitch Kahn has performed at dozens of New York City's notable venues, including The Rainbow Room, Sardi's, Tavern on the Green and the Copacabana and has appeared on numerous syndicated radio and television programs.

As one of New York's top society pianists and orchestra leaders entertaining for private, corporate and charity events, his is a familiar face at the multitude of hotels, private clubs, restaurants and specialty banquet and convention facilities across North America.

A former musical child prodigy, Mitch's training in classical and jazz piano, orchestration and voice, combined with his vast professional experience and keen audience insight have culminated in a series of intimate and innovative programs exploring the tremendous wealth of the Great American Popular Songbook.