

What they're saying:

"Mitch Kahn is a skilled entertainer indeed - whether presiding with great affability and charm at a keyboard or leading his fellow-musicians - he serves the Songbook well and his public even better."

Steve Ross
Cabaret Legend
New York City

"Mitch plays with an effortless delicacy which truly captures the meaning of the old masters."

Lesley Alexander
Theatre and Cabaret Critic
New York City

"... how great you were, both musically and in your ability to engage the audience. I hope you enjoyed performing here as much as we were happy to have you ... and look forward to inviting you back in the future!"

Beth Saltalamacchio
Cultural Program Specialist
Plainview-Old Bethpage Public Library
Plainview, Long Island

"... a "true" entertainer - he feels the audience and is capable of flexing with their needs to produce a great evening. What more could we ask for?"

Michele Koff & Judy Petricoff
Entertainment Co-chairs
Frenchman's Creek
Palm Beach Gardens, Florida

"... chords and harmonies are so intricate and different - and it's unusual in this day and age of hackneyed piano players to hear such beautiful sounds voice is something great a wide range from intimate and gentle to thunderous and rollicking even the old clichéd tunes sounded new".

Glenda Grainger
Actress & Vocalist

"... truly at the very top of the spectrum of pianists of the popular American Song Book....very clean and classy and beautiful arrangements"

Rhoda Minowitz
Musicologist and Unabashed Fan
New York

"Mitch Kahn's performance was wonderful. The audience reaction was so enthusiastic we immediately booked him for a second show!"

Donna Bernstein
Program Specialist
Sid Jacobson JCC
East Hills, Long Island