

Mitch Kahn Celebrates the Great American Popular Songbook

“SAIL AWAY”

“On the wings of the morning
with your own true love,
sail away, sail away, sail away.”

“Sail Away” is a musical voyage through the eyes of vintage songwriters Cole Porter, Johnny Mercer, Noel Coward, Frank Loesser, Hoagy Carmichael, Bart Howard, Jimmy Van Heusen, Harold Arlen, Yip Harburg, Sammy Cahn, Kurt Weill and the Gershwins (among others), as well as contemporary notables Ian Hunter, Peter Allen and Dennis Deyoung (of the rock band Styx).

Song titles include well known standards “On a Slow Boat to China”, “Beyond the Sea”, “Come Fly With Me” and “Skylark”, plus lesser known titles such as “I Go to Rio”, “Ships”, (recorded by Barry Manilow) and title song “Sail Away” (written by Noel Coward and Gertrude Lawrence).

Come sail to the four corners of the world with singer-pianist Mitch Kahn as he explores the vast wealth of the Great American Popular Songbook.

